

Important Notice

KMTelecom has offered KMTV Digital Television since 2003. We're proud to say that the only price increases we have had during this time was in 2008 and 2010. Unfortunately, our costs from programmers continue to increase. Therefore, effective January 1, 2012 KMTelecom is passing along an increase in KMTV rates.

All programming packages have increased by $3.00 per month. The $3.00 television programming increase will also be reflected in bundle options. The HBO premium movie package has increased by $1.00. On a brighter note, we are expecting new Discovery channels to be added in 2012. Watch for that announcement.

Details of the increase are as follows:

| KMTV Programming Packages | Was | Now |
|----------------------------------|--------------|------------|
| Networks | $16.99..... | $19.99 |
| Basic | $36.99..... | $39.99 |
| Expanded | $46.99..... | $49.99 |
| Deluxe..... | $52.99..... | $55.99 |
| HBO | $15.99..... | $16.99 |
| All Movies Package..... | $48.99..... | $49.99 |

Bundles are still a great way to save!
